|-------------------|---------|--|
| ALL BLUE | 120 | Dark Blue skin with almost purple flesh. Plants have beautiful blue flower that produce lots of oblong tubers. Makes beautiful mashed potatoes and great in potato salad for a little more color. |
| CAL WHITE | 80 | A white potato that is good in place of Kennebec. It produces very large smooth oblong tubers with a thin skin. The plant is large in size and yields well. |
| DARK RED NORLAND | 75 | An early red what has almost burgundy colored skin with white flesh and shallow eyes. Great fried and in potato salad. |
| GERMAN BUTTERBALL | 100-130 | Rich, golden russet-type potato. All around favorite for baking, frying, and steaming. Truly an all-purpose potato, with delicious buttery flavor and a tender, flaky texture. An instant favorite! Excellent for winter storage. |
| HUCKLEBERRY GOLD | 90-100 | This is a mid-season beauty with dark purple skin and moist golden flesh. It is good to a wide range of cooking. This variety is disease resistant to scab and verticillium wilt. |
| RED LASODA | 80-100 | Distinctive rosy skin and waxy white flesh. Tasty boiled, baked or fried. Widely adapted and reliable—withstands cold, heat and drought. |
| RED PONTIAC | 100 | An old time favorite of gardeners. It grows well in about any climate. Plants are big and can produce huge white flesh, deep-eyed potatoes. Stores well. |
| RUSSET BURBANK | 100 | Famous Idaho potato, brown net skin, great cooked any way a person likes: mashed, fried, boiled, or baked. It produces a large leafy plant with good yields. |
| RUSSET NORKOTAH | 85 | High-yielding and delicious, the perfect potato for small gardens. Russet-skinned potatoes for baking or boiling. Matures early. |
| YUKON GOLD | 80 | Yellow fleshed, smooth, thin skinned with shallow pink eyes. A great potato. Excellent baked or mashed. After they are cooked they appear to already have butter on them. The plant grows large and stands very tall. It sets on early and can produce huge tubers. It stores very well. |
